Rules and Regulations:

*Please read the rules and regulations. Everyone will be held to these standards and you will be asked to leave if you do not. If a problem arises, please bring it to my, Elena's, attention immediately.

1. Show behavior: Please be respectful of other's time and property. Do not touch models that do not belong to you. Please listen carefully to the classes being called and place your horses in a timely manner. Classes will not be held for people running late. Children are welcome as long as they are mannerly and respectful as well. If you or your child break something of someone else's, you will be responsible for paying the value of it. Please keep your voices down so that everyone can hear the classes.
2. Please be respectful of the hall and clean up after yourself. No food or drinks on the carpeted areas, please.
3. Please check in with the show holders when you get to the hall. We will get you your show packet.
4. The hall will be open for set up at 7:00 am.
5. No complaining/arguing with the judges. Their placings are final. If there is a problem/issue please bring it to the show holder's attention immediately.
6. Classes start promptly at 8 am and 2 pm. Classes will not be held so please be on time.
7. No pets allowed in the venue
8. Limits: 2 horses per halter class, 2 horses per performance class. Dollar buy ins are allowed. You may not enter a horse in more than one halter class by changing its name or breed. Horses over the limit will be disqualified.
9. First and second placing in the open classes will be NAN qualified. An open class is defined as competition where the entrant is not limited by skill, level, age or years of competition. Any classes that limit entrants by these criteria cannot be counted as NAN qualifier classes.
10. Classes will be split as needed.
11. Flats/paper ribbons will be awarded to 1-6 placings, rosettes to Champions and reserve Champions.
12. A person may not show and judge in the same division at a NAMHSA member show. A division is defined as one or more grouped classes such as "OF-Breyer Plastic", "Custom Glazed" or "OF performance". A judge may not judge models that he/she has worked on/collaborated on. A judge may not judge any model which he/she owns or has owned within the last six months. A judge may not judge models owned by relatives of the judge.
13. Lunch break will be promptly from 1-2.

Halter Classes

1. Limit: 2 horses per class. Classes will be split if necessary. No limit on China/Custom glaze.
2. Every entry in an OF division must include collectability information in order to be judged. Entries without documentation will not be judged for collectability.
3. OFs will be judged by breed and collectability, CMs/ARs will be judged by breed and workmanship.
4. No halters/ set-ups in halter classes.
5. Breed notes:
 - a. Carriage/Coach: Includes Friesian, Cleveland Bay, Hackney horse, Welsh Cob (section D), Gelderlander, etc.
 - b. Other sport: Includes Mixed breed/grade sport, Spotted sport, pinto/paint sport horses, Friesian crosses
 - c. Other part/mixed/grade: Included mixed breeds other than arab, pony, draft and sport crosses. Please put those in part arab, pony mixed, draft mixed or sport mixed.

Performance Classes

1. Class Limits: 2 entries per entrant per class. You must be able to complete all setups within the time limit.
2. Time limits: A maximum of 10 minutes will be permitted for each class setup; the judge will start working as soon as each entry is reasonably complete.
3. Explanation cards: are required for all performance classes
